Jay,

We have tracked this - the money has been identified as an open item on a bank account belonging to Lehman Brothers Holdings, which is under the administration of Alvarez and Marsal. It may be difficult to get the money back, but in any case it is out of my hands for the moment. Below is the contact info you or the client may need.

Alex

Alvarez have been communicating with Carmine Rullo on this and the relevant documentation/questionnaire has already been completed and reviewed by Alvarez London

The contact in London is Daniel Barton at dbarton@alvarezandmarsal.com who can advise the status

I'll circle back to Edgewood on this when I'm back in the office. Does it make a difference in where we were looking if this was an international stock trade (I believe Vesta Wind Systems is a Dutch company and Edgewood sold it in the local market and we were supposed to settle in dollars.....I'm not sure this is how it was executed as I'm out of the office but if it was, would the record of the trade be found in a different area than we've been exploring?).....either way, I'll check back with Edgewood by the end of the week for any documentation he can provide. Thx again

Jay, since my last mail I spoke to Asgar and someone else who keeps records for the NYSE of all trades we do. Both looked through historical records for the data, but we can't find this trade. We would love to help the client find out what happened but are at the end of the road in terms of where to look. We really need a confirm or statement or some other form of substantiation that the trade was executed with Lehman.

I have gone out to the OES technology team today once you got the approval, however they have not been able to dig up anything yet.

I am going to check back with them and see if they can provide a data dump from that trade window and that security.

I'll get back on it as soon as I hear something.

Jay, on the phone with Edgewood I thought we had figured out the account which traded, i.e. the GROWFD account 834-81232. But our records show no such trade on their statements for July/August.

Separately, Asgar from equity support has been looking to get some data restored to help him.

Asgar, we need to confirm that LBI executed a buy of 3,928 shares of Vestas Wind Systems vs. $505,936.16 on 7/29/08 for settlement 8/1/08, and what account it went to.

Hi Alex, Ray sent me back the following. The Lehman Acct # seems to be the difficult info to dig up, both on our end and theirs. Also, since we (or US Bank) were sending the money to Edgewood, (which got misdirected), Ray is not sure how he would know where USBank originally wired the funds or the instructions therein. Let me know what the next step should be. I still suggest conferencing you in with Ray. Thx for your efforts.

rayjjaeger: the amount is accurate rayjjaeger: the wire lehman sent to pay for the trade went out on 8/8 rayjjaeger: settle date should have been 8/1 rayjjaeger: in terms of your account not sure since it was a wire that was supposed to go to edgewood

Would like to know:

Edgewood's a/c number at Lehman

Confirm the amount 505,936.13

The date of the wire - 8/1?

The specific instructions that US bank used to send the money, including the name of the bank to which the money was paid and any specific account numbers at that bank to which the funds were to be credited.

Alex, call me when you get a second. I'm working on smoothing over the Lehman legacy issues with Edgewood Securities as I know the trader over there. Need to find out specifically what info he needs to provide to us (what you need to know) to help him.
